

NLP Coach Practitioner Course Part 2

including INLPTA Coach Practitioner Certification

Building on the skills and ideas presented in Part 1 of this course (see separate leaflet) you'll further develop your ability, attitude and identity as a Generative Coach; to be able to have significant and purposeful coaching conversations; to assist people achieve tangible results; and to facilitate meaningful evolution and transformation.

You'll also benefit from being coached – to assist you in your development as a coach as well as for enhancing other areas of your life.

“An excellent course – well run, with care and professionalism. I am now more able to use my skills to coach and also develop as a human being. I have learned to understand the difference between coaching and counselling, to hone my skills in NLP and manage a coaching session with confidence. The course was extremely relevant to what I intend to do. The trainers (all) were excellent.”

Linford Sweeney, NHS

Trainer:

The main trainer will be Frank Daniels, Certified NLP Trainer (with 22 years experience), NLP Coach Trainer (INLPTA registered) and business trainer. He trained as a Coach through Erickson College and is also a UKCP (NLP) Psychotherapist and Ericksonian Hypnotherapist.

During the training you will be assisted by coaching assistants.

On Part 2 you will:

- Access the ideal Coaching State
- Discover and access your and your coachee's Core Values
- Utilise the Core Coaching Proficiencies and Benchmark the skills
- Clarify Coaching Ethics
- Create your Coach Identity
- Practise essential Feedback Principles
- Work with the Beliefs Diagnosis Questionnaire and explore various methods for Changing Beliefs
- Enhance your ability to facilitate the creative process
- Use Metaprograms/The LAB Profile to understand and tap into your clients' motivation traits and to facilitate the whole coaching process
- Work at the level of Mission and Vision, and clarify your own Purpose
- Use Metaphors and Ericksonian ('Hypnotic') Language Patterns for coaching and more....

“Excellent course, provided affirmation that I'm going in the right direction, plus plenty of ideas on what new techniques and tools I can use.”

Chrissie Bedwin, Consultant, Coach, NLP Master Practitioner

For details contact:

Frank Daniels Associates
Tel: 0845 226 9088 or 01773 857678
Email: info@FrankDanielsAssociates.co.uk
Web: www.FrankDanielsAssociates.co.uk

Testimonials for our NLP Coach Practitioner Course Part 2

"I have really enjoyed the course and have become increasingly comfortable with the concept of being a coach as it has progressed. The trainers were very helpful and personable. In the course of the training I have also learned some new things about myself and identified and stored tangible actions for the future".

Ken Burgess, Aspiring Coach.

"The ... Coaching Practitioner course was really informative, and I enjoyed the practical exercise. Frank's presentation of the material was excellent overall, and I valued the learning environment provided. I would definitely recommend the next Coach Practitioner course to anyone interested in developing their coaching/NLP skills."

Christine Hardy, Mediator and Coach

"An excellent four days. It has stimulated, energised and stretched me, for this I thank you. It has allowed me to clarify where I am and my direction of travel. I can't wait to continue on my journey. Many thanks."

Philip Wilkes, Consultant

"I thank you so much for this really wonderful course which has helped me to move forward in so many ways. The trainers' relaxed and approachable style created a wonderfully supportive learning environment. I feel truly inspired."

Kay Gaskell, Workshop Facilitator and Coach

"Examples of and actual questions to elicit generative states are very much appreciated and useful for me. Manual - excellent and valued and cherished by me. Liked Frank's usual relaxed style and also liked the contrast between different people's coaching styles and approaches."

Vauna Beauvais, Clinical Psychologist, Counsellor, Coach

Why attend this training with us?

- Gain powerful new coaching skills
- Emphasis on Generative Coaching
- Develop yourself
- Achieve a (or another) qualification as a coach
- Upgrade your NLP skills
- Receive personal attention due to the small group size
- Great venue – rural tranquil surroundings to enhance your enjoyment
- Superb value for money

Pre-requisite

This 5-day course is for NLP Practitioners. INLPTA certification requires that you are an INLPTA NLP Practitioner or equivalent. If in doubt, please enquire.

Certification

Upon reaching the required standard you'll be certified through us and through INLPTA (the International NLP Trainer's Association) as an NLP Coach Practitioner.

Evaluation is by demonstration of behavioural competence in coaching (and preparing a coaching plan).

Logistics

Dates: Part 1: 14 & 15 March 2015

Part 2: 11-13 April 2015

Venue: Crich, Derbyshire or Nottingham

Investment: For the whole five-day course

Employer Sponsored rate £745

Self-financing rate £495

Early Booking Self-financing rate £445
(by 13th February)

or for Part 2 only, having attended Part 1 previously

Employer Sponsored £495

Self-financing £345

Early Booking Self-financing rate £295
(by 13th February)

"...a fantastic experience to learn and practice with other like minded folk. The content was great ... you created a supporting environment and I always felt that we were in a safe pair of hands - thank you. I have already recommended you to others and will continue to do so."

Karen Tems, Trainer

"Enjoyed everything! Felt refreshed and ready to start coaching. I especially liked the relaxed atmosphere in which the learning's were given. I will be coming back for further training".

Paul Stoppard, Development Manager

To book contact:

Frank Daniels Associates

Tel: 0845 226 9088 or 01773 857678

Email: info@FrankDanielsAssociates.co.uk

